(iii) the owners or Board of Management thereof shall not discontinue the institution except after serving on the Minister not less than four years' notice, or such shorter notice as the Minister may agree to accept, of their intention to do so;

(3) While any educational institution is being conducted and maintained by the Minister under subsection (2)—

(5) Any amount required, pursuant to sub-paragraph (iv) of paragraph (g) of subsection (1), to be repaid shall be a debt due to the Government from the owners or Board of Management of the institution and may be sued for and recovered in the Supreme Court or in a Resident Magistrate’s Court by the Attorney-General, with costs of suit, from the person charged therewith as a debt due to the Government.

(3) Where the parent of any student who is a boarder at a public educational institution requests that the student be permitted to attend worship in accordance with the tenets of a particular religious denomination on Sundays or other days exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs, or to receive religious instruction in accordance with such tenets outside school hours, the Board of Management of the institution shall make arrangements for affording to the student reasonable opportunities for so doing, so, however, that such arrangements shall not entail expenditure by the Minister or the Board of Management.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this section, the school day in every public educational institution shall include time for collective worship on the part of all students in attendance at the institution, and the arrangements made...
therefor shall provide for a single act of worship attended by all such students unless, in the opinion of the Board of Management, the premises of the institution are such as to make it impracticable to assemble the students for such purpose.

(5) A copy of this section printed in large type shall be kept posted up in a conspicuous place in every public educational institution.

19. The Minister shall cause every public educational institution to keep, in such form and manner as shall be prescribed, a register to be known as the Register of Students, and such register shall contain the prescribed particulars with respect to all persons who are students at such institution.

(b) that a person who is alleged to have failed to comply with the requirements of an attendance order is guilty of an offence against section 22, the court may, whether or not the parent is convicted, direct that the child in respect of whom the offence is alleged to have been committed be brought before a Children's Court.
by the person or authority by whom or on whose behalf the proceedings were instituted, and the Children’s Court may, if it is satisfied that it is necessary so to do for the purpose of securing the regular attendance of the child at a school, make any order which such a court has power to make under section 80 (2) of the Child Care and Protection Act in the case of children who are brought before it under Part III of that Act.

(7) For the purposes of the Child Care and Protection Act any child with respect to whom a direction has been given under this section that he be brought before a Children’s Court shall be deemed to be a child about to be brought, or brought, before such a court under Part III of that Act and any order made by a Children’s Court under this section shall be deemed to be an order made under section 80 (2) of that Act, and all the provisions of that Act shall have effect accordingly, but subject to the modification that in relation to any such child subsection (1) of section 12 of that Act shall have effect as if the words “or any person to whom a direction has been given under subsection (6) of section 21 of the Education Act”, were inserted therein next after the word “constable”.

(2) If a parent upon whom a notice is served under this section fails to satisfy the Educational Board in accordance with the requirements of the notice that the child to whom the notice relates is receiving full-time education suitable to his age and ability and satisfactory to the Educational Board, then, if in the opinion of the Educational Board it is expedient that he should attend school, the Board shall serve upon the parent an order (hereinafter referred to as a "school attendance order") requiring the parent to cause the child to become a registered student at a school named in the order:

Provided that the Educational Board may at any time, at the request of the parent, substitute another school for the school named in the order.

(4) If in any proceedings against any person for a failure to comply with a school attendance order that person is acquitted, the court may direct that the school attend-

of the opinion that having regard to any change of circumstances it is expedient so to do.

(5) Except as provided in subsection (4) a school attendance order made with respect to any child shall, sub-

24.—(1) The Minister may direct the Educational Board for any compulsory education area to ascertain for his information which children of compulsory school age residing in such area require special educational treatment; and after considering the report of the Educational Board the Minister may take such steps as he thinks fit to provide for the education of any such children requiring special educational treatment.

(2) For the purpose of carrying out the directions of the Minister under this section an Educational Board may cause to be served upon the parent of any child of compulsory school age residing in a compulsory education area in respect of which such directions were given, a notice requiring the parent to submit the child, at a time and place specified in the notice, for examination by a Medical Officer for advice as to whether the child is suffering from any disability of mind or body and as to the nature and extent of any such disability.

(3) If any parent upon whom a notice is served under this section fails without reasonable cause to comply with the requirements of such notice he shall be guilty of an offence against this section, and shall be liable on summary conviction before a Resident Magistrate to a fine not exceeding four dollars, and where such offence is continued after conviction the parent shall be guilty of a continuing offence and in respect of each day during which that offence continues shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two dollars.
