(2) In this section, references to the proceeds of drug trafficking by any person include a reference to any property which in whole or in part directly or indirectly represented in his hands the proceeds of drug trafficking by him.
(3) Where a person discloses to a police officer a suspicion or belief that any funds or investments are derived from or used in connection with drug trafficking or any matter on which such a suspicion or belief is based,

(a) the disclosure shall not be treated as a breach of any restriction upon the disclosure of information imposed by contract; and

(ii) it is made after he does the act, but is made on his initiative and as soon as it is reasonable for him to make it.

20.—(1) It is an offence for a person to contravene any regulations made under this Act other than regulations made in pursuance of section 13(2) (h) or (i) of this Act.

(2) It is an offence for a person to contravene a condition or other term of a licence issued under section 5 or of a licence or other authority issued under regulations made under this Act, not being a licence issued under regulations made in pursuance of section 13(2)(i) of this Act.

22. A person commits an offence if in Belize he assists in or induces the commission in any place outside Belize of an offence punishable under the provisions of a corresponding law in force in that place.

23. Where any offence under this Act committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or any person purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against accordingly.

(2) If a member of the Belize Police Department has reasonable grounds to suspect that any person is in possession of a controlled drug in contravention of this Act, or of any regulations made thereunder, the member of the Belize Police Department may, subject to subsection (3) of this section,

(a) search that person, and detain him for the purpose of searching him;

(b) search any ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description in which the member of the Belize Police Department suspects that the drug may be found, or which has been used or employed in the commission or attempted commission of any such offence, and for that purpose require the person in control of the ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description to stop it;
(c) seize and detain for the purpose of proceedings under this Act,

(i) anything found in the course of the search which appears to the member of the Belize Police Department to be evidence of an offence under this Act; and

(ii) any ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance, stopped under paragraph (b) in pursuance of his search.

(3) Nothing in subsection (2) of this section, shall derogate from any power of search or any power to seize or detain property which is otherwise exercisable by a member of the Belize Police Department.

(4) If a magistrate in the case of paragraph (a) of this subsection, or a Judge of the Supreme Court in the case of paragraph (b) of this subsection, is satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground for suspecting,

(a) that any controlled drug is, in contravention of this Act or of any regulations made thereunder, in the possession of a person on any premises or in any place; or

(b) that a document directly or indirectly relating to, or connected with, a transaction or dealing which was, or an intended transaction or dealing which would if carried out be, an offence under this Act, or in the case of a transaction or dealing carried out or intended to be carried out in a place outside Belize, an offence against the provisions of a corresponding law in force in that place, is in the possession of a person on any premises or in any place;

he may issue a warrant authorising any member of the Belize Police Department at any time or times within one month from the date of issue of the warrant, to enter, if need be by force, the premises or place named in the warrant, and to search such premises or place and any persons found therein and, if there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Act has been committed in relation to any controlled drugs found on the premises or place or in the possession of any such person, or that a document so found is such a document as is mentioned in paragraph (b), to seize and detain those drugs or that document, as the case may be.

(5) A person commits an offence if he,

(a) intentionally obstructs a person in the exercise of his powers under this section;

(b) being the person in control of the ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description, fails to stop it when required to do so by a member of the Belize Police Department under subsection (2)(b) of this section;

(c) being a person being conveyed in a ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description, prevents or intimidates the person operating the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description from stopping when required to do so by a member of the Belize Police Department under subsection (2)(b) of this section;

(e) conceals from a person acting in the exercise of his powers under subsection (1) of this section any such books, documents, stocks or drugs as are mentioned in that subsection; or
(f) without reasonable excuse (proof of which shall lie on him), fails to produce any such books or documents as are so mentioned where their production is demanded by a person in the exercise of his powers under that subsection.

(6) Any person acting under the warrant granted under subsection (4) of this section, shall not be liable to any suit or other proceeding for seizing or detaining any of the articles which he is entitled to seize or detain by virtue of the said warrant.

26.–(1) A member of the Belize Police Department may arrest without warrant any person who has committed or is about to commit, or whom a member of the Belize Police Department, with reasonable cause, suspects to have committed or to be about to commit, an offence under this Act.

(2) Where any controlled drug is found on any premises searched under section 25(1) of this section, or in any ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description stopped under section 25(2) of this Act, the member of the Belize Police Department who has made the search or stopped the ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description, as the case may be, may arrest without warrant any person in such premises or in such ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of an offence under this Act.

(3) This section shall not prejudice any power of arrest conferred by law apart from this section.

(4) Reference to an offence in this section means any offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder.

27.–(1) Where on the summary trial of an offence committed under this Act and triable either summarily or on indictment, a person who is not less than eighteen years of age is convicted of the offence, then, if on obtaining information that his character and antecedents are such that in the opinion of the Magistrate greater punishment should be inflicted for the offence than the Magistrate has power to inflict, the Magistrate may commit that person in custody to the Supreme Court for sentence and shall, as soon as practicable, transmit to the Registrar of the Supreme Court the record of the proceedings.

(2) On receipt of the record, the Registrar of the Supreme Court shall issue an order to the gaoler to bring the convicted person before a Judge of the Supreme Court at a time to be fixed by the Judge of the Supreme Court.

(3) The Judge of the Supreme Court shall enquire into the circumstances of the case and shall have power to deal with the convicted person as if he had just been convicted of the offence on indictment before the Supreme Court.

28.—(1) Except where expressly otherwise provided, the Third Schedule shall have effect, in accordance with subsection (2) of this section, with respect to the way in which offences under this Act are punishable on conviction.

(2) In relation to an offence under a provision of this Act specified in the first column of the Third Schedule (the general nature of the offence being described in the second column),

(a) the third column shows whether an offence is punishable on summary conviction or on indictment or in either way;

(b) the fourth, fifth and sixth columns show respectively the punishments which may be imposed on a person convicted of the offence in the way specified in relation thereto in the third column, (that is to say, summarily or on indictment) according to whether the controlled drug in relation to which the offence was committed was a Class A drug, a Class B drug or a Class C drug; and

(c) the seventh column shows the punishments which may be imposed on a person convicted of the offence in the way specified in relation thereto in the third column (that is to say, summarily or on indictment), whether or not the offence was committed in relation to a controlled drug, and if it was so committed, irrespective of whether the drug was a Class A drug,
a Class B drug or a Class C drug;

and in the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh columns a reference to a period gives the maximum term of imprisonment, and a reference to a sum of money, the maximum fine.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act relating to drug trafficking, an offence under section 21 of this Act shall be punishable on summary conviction, on indictment or in either way according to whether, under the Third Schedule, the substantive offence is punishable on summary conviction, on indictment or in either way; and the punishments which may be imposed on a person convicted of an offence under that section are the same as those which, under that Schedule, may be imposed on a person convicted of the substantive offence.

(4) In subsection (3) of this section, “the substantive offence” means the offence under this Act to which the attempt or, as the case may be, the incitement or attempted incitement mentioned in section 21 of this Act was directed.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Summary Jurisdiction (Procedure) Act, Cap. 99 or any other enactment, a magistrates court may try on information or on complaint an offence under this Act if the information or complaint was laid, or, as the case may be, made at any time within 24 months from the commission of the offence.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, in the case of an offence under this Act other than a drug trafficking offence, where the convicted person is a first time offender and is proved to be addicted to drugs, the court shall pass a suspended sentence and refer the convicted person to a drug rehabilitation centre for treatment on the condition that if such person shall leave the rehabilitation centre before the completion of the treatment, or shall otherwise misbehave, he shall be required to serve the sentence passed on him.
29.—(1) Where a person is convicted of an offence or of an attempt to commit an offence or of soliciting or inciting the commission of an offence under this Act and the court by which such person is convicted finds that any aircraft, vessel, vehicle or any other means of conveyance of whatever description was used or employed by such person in the commission or to facilitate the commission of the offence of which he is convicted, such aircraft, vessel, vehicle or other means of conveyance of whatever description shall be forfeited.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1) of this section, where a person is convicted of an offence under this Act, the court shall, in passing sentence, order forfeiture to the Government of Belize, of any article, money or other valuable consideration relating to the offence.

(3) The owner of any aircraft, vessel, vehicle or any other means of conveyance of whatever description in respect of which an order of forfeiture has been made under subsection (1) of this section, shall have the right of appeal of an accused person and may appeal to the court to which the appeals normally lie from the decisions of the court which made the order of forfeiture.

(4) Where any substance, article, vehicle, vessel, boat, aircraft or any other means of conveyance of whatever description is seized and detained by a member of the Belize Police Department under section 25(2)(c) of this Act, a magistrate shall, upon the written application of the Commissioner of Police, or of an officer authorised by the Commissioner, made after the expiry of 30 days, inquire into the circumstances in which such substance, article, vehicle, vessel, boat, aircraft or other means of conveyance of whatever description was seized and detained and shall determine whether or not an offence against this Act has been committed in respect of it and whether or not it was used or employed in the commission or attempted commission of any such offence; and if the magistrate so determines, such substance, article, vehicle, vessel, aircraft or any other means of conveyance of whatever description shall be forfeited.

(5) For the purposes of this section, “aircraft”, “vessel” and “vehicle” respectively include everything contained in, being on or attached to any aircraft, vessel or vehicle as the case may be, which, in the opinion of the court, forms part of the equipment of such aircraft, vessel or vehicle.

(6) The proceeds of forfeitures made under this section and under section 30 of this Act (other than controlled drugs) may be,

(a) applied to the treatment and rehabilitation of persons addicted (within the meaning of the regulations) to controlled drugs of any description;

(b) applied to the use of the National Drug Abuse Control Council for the performance of its functions under this Act; and

(c) made available to the Belize Police Department for the prevention and detection of offences under this Act,

Provided that not less than 25% of such proceeds in any year shall be applied for the purpose mentioned in (c) of this subsection.

(7) Subject to any regulations made under this Act, controlled drugs under this section shall be destroyed or disposed of in accordance with the directions of the court, provided that a senior police officer designated by the Commissioner of Police shall be present at the time of such destruction or disposal.

(8) Where any person is discharged or acquitted of an offence against this Act, the court which tried the case may thereafter make such order as it thinks fit for the forfeiture and destruction or other disposal of all drugs, substances and articles in respect of which the said person was charged.
(9) At any stage of a criminal proceeding pending against an accused person, the court hearing the case may, on the written application of a police officer of or above the rank of assistant inspector, order the destruction or other disposal of all or any of the substances in respect of which the said person had been charged, if it is a controlled drug and if the court is of the opinion that this can be done consistently with the interests of justice.

(10) If, upon the application of any person (other than the accused person) prejudiced by a forfeiture order made under this Part, the court is satisfied that neither he nor his agent or servant knew or believed nor had reasonable grounds to believe that any such vehicle, vessel, boat, aircraft or any other means of conveyance, as the case may be, was being used or employed in the commission or attempted commission of any offence under this Act, the court may, upon such terms and conditions (if any) as it deems fit, revoke that order.

(11) An application under subsection (10) of this section for the revocation of a forfeiture order shall be made either at the time when such order is made or within thirty days of the date of the order.

30.-(1) Where a person (hereinafter in this Part referred to as the defendant) has been convicted of a drug trafficking offence the court before which the defendant is convicted shall, before passing sentence, determine whether he has benefitted from drug trafficking and if the court so determines, the court shall, upon the application of the prosecution or, if it considers that even though the prosecution has not asked it to do so, it is appropriate for it to proceed under this section,

(a) determine in accordance with section 35 of this Act, the value of the defendant’s proceeds of drug trafficking; and

(b) in addition to any other punishment, order the forfeiture of such amount as represents the value of the defendant’s proceeds of drug trafficking as so determined.
(2) A person against whom proceedings have been instituted for a drug trafficking offence is referred to in this Part (whether or not he has been convicted) as “the defendant”.

(3) The standard of proof required to determine any question arising under this Act as to,

(a) whether a person has benefited from drug trafficking; or

(b) the amount to be recovered in his case by virtue of this Act, shall be that applicable in civil proceedings.

31.-(1) Where the court is acting under section 30 of this Act but considers that it requires further information before,

(a) determining whether the defendant has benefited from drug trafficking; or

(b) determining the amount to be recovered in his case by virtue of section 30 of this Act, it may, for the purpose of enabling that information to be obtained, postpone making the determination for such period as it may specify.

(2) More than one postponement may be made under subsection (1) of this section, in relation to the same case.

(3) Unless it is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances, the court shall not specify a period under subsection (1) of this section which,

(a) by itself; or

(b) where there have been one or more previous postponements under subsection (1) or (4) of this section, when taken together with the earlier specified period or periods, exceeds six months beginning with the date of conviction.
(4) Where the defendant appeals against his conviction, the court may, on that account,

(a) postpone making either or both of the determinations mentioned in subsection (1) of this section for such period as it may specify; or

(b) where it has already exercised its powers under this section to postpone, extend the specified period.

(5) A postponement or extension under subsection (1) or (4) of this section may be made,

(a) on application by the defendant or the prosecutor; or

(b) by the court of its own motion.

(6) Unless the court is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances, any postponement or extension under subsection (4) of this section, shall not exceed the period ending three months after the date on which the appeal is determined or otherwise disposed of.

(7) Where the court exercises its power under subsection (1) or (4) of this section, it may nevertheless proceed to sentence, or otherwise deal with, the defendant in respect of the relevant offence or any of the relevant offences.

(8) Where the court has so proceeded, section 30 of this Act shall have effect as if in subsection (1) of this section the words “before passing sentence” were omitted.

(9) In this section,

(a) “the relevant offence” means the drug trafficking offence in respect of which the defendant appears (as mentioned in section 30(1) of this Act) before the court;

(b) “the date of conviction” means,
the date on which the defendant was convicted; or

(ii) where he appeared to be sentenced in respect of more than one conviction, and those convictions were not all on the same date, the date of the latest of those convictions.

32. For the purposes of this Part, a person who knowingly receives any proceeds of drug trafficking shall be presumed to have benefited from drug trafficking.

33.–(1) The court may, for the purpose of,

(a) determining whether the defendant has benefited from drug trafficking; and

(b) if he has, of assessing the value of the proceeds of drug trafficking for the purpose of making a forfeiture order under this Part, make assumptions set out in subsection (2) of this section except to the extent that any of the assumptions are shown to be incorrect in the defendant’s case.

(2) The assumptions referred to in subsection (1) of this section are,

(a) that any property appearing to the court,

(i) to have been held by the defendant at any time since he was charged with a drug trafficking offence; or

(ii) to have been transferred to him at any time since the beginning of the period of six years ending when the proceedings were instituted against him, being proceedings for the drug trafficking offence in respect of which an application for forfeiture is made pursuant to this Part, (hereinafter referred to as “the relevant proceedings”),
Misuse of Drugs

was received by him, at the earliest time at which he appears to the court to have held it, as a payment or reward in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him,

Provided that the period of six years mentioned in this subsection shall not include any period prior to the commencement of this Act,

(b) that any expenditure of his since the beginning of that period was met out of payments received by him in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him; and

(c) that, for the purpose of valuing any property received or assumed to have been received by him, such property was received by him free of any other interests in it.

(3) For the purpose of assessing the value of the defendant’s proceeds of drug trafficking in a case where a forfeiture order has previously been made against him, the court shall leave out of account any of the proceeds of drug trafficking that are shown to the court to have been taken into account in determining the amount to be recovered from him under that order.

34.-(1) Where the prosecutor asks the court to proceed under section 30 of this Act he shall give the court, within such period as it may direct, a statement of matters which he considers relevant in connection with,

(a) determining whether the defendant has benefited from drug trafficking; or

(b) assessing the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking.

(2) In this section, such a statement is referred to as a “prosecutor’s statement”.

(3) Where the court proceeds under section 30 of this Act without the prosecutor having asked it to do so, it may require him to give it a prosecutor’s statement, within such period as it may direct.

THE SUBSTANTIVE LAWS OF BELIZE

REVISED EDITION 2011

Printed by Authority of the Government of Belize
(4) Where the prosecutor has given a prosecutor’s statement,

(a) he may at any time give the court a further such statement; and

(b) the court may at any time require him to give it a further such statement, within such period as it may direct.

(5) Where any prosecutor’s statement has been given and the court is satisfied that a copy of the statement has been served on the defendant, it may require the defendant,

(a) to indicate to it, within such period as it may direct, the extent to which he accepts each allegation in the statement; and

(b) so far as he does not accept any such allegation, to give particulars of any matters on which he proposes to rely.

(6) Where the court has given a direction under this section it may at anytime vary it by giving further direction.

(7) Where the defendant accepts to any extent any allegation in any prosecutor’s statement, the court may, for the purposes of,

(a) determining whether the defendant has benefited from drug trafficking; or

(b) assessing the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking, treat his acceptance as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(8) Where,

(a) there is tendered to the court by the defendant a statement as to any matters relevant to determining
(b) the prosecution accepts to any extent any allegation in such statement, the court may, for the purposes of that determination, treat the acceptance by the prosecution as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(9) An obligation may be accepted, or particulars of any matter may be given, for the purpose of this section, in such manner as may be prescribed by rules of court or as the court may direct.

35.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, for the purposes of this Act, the value of property (other than cash) in relation to any person holding the property is,

(a) where any other person holds an interest in the property, the market value of the first mentioned person’s beneficial interest in the property, less the amount required to discharge any encumbrance on that interest (other than a charging order); and

(b) in any other case, the market value of the property.

(2) Subject to section 36(6), references in this Act to the value at any time (in this section referred to as “the material time”) of a gift caught by this Act or of any payment or reward, are references to,

(a) the value of the gift, payment or reward to the recipient when he received it, adjusted to take account of subsequent changes in the value of money; or

(b) where subsection (3) of this section applies, the value mentioned in that subsection, whichever is the greater.

(3) Subject to section 36(6) of this Act, if at the material time the recipient holds,

(a) the property which he received (not being cash); or

(b) the property which, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly represents, in his hands, the property which he received, the value referred to in subsection (2)(b) of this section is the value to him at the material time of the property mentioned in paragraph (a) or, as the case may be, paragraph (b) of this subsection so far as it so represents the property which he received, but disregarding in either case any charging order.

(4) For the purposes of this Act, a “charging order” is an order made by the court imposing on any such realizable property as may be specified in the order a charge for securing the payment of money to the Government.

36.—(1) In this Act, “realizable property” means, subject to subsection (2) of this section,

(a) any property held by the defendant; and

(b) any property held by a person to whom the defendant has directly or indirectly made a gift caught by this Act.

(2) Property is not realizable property if an order under section 29 of this Act is in force in respect of that property or, as the case may be, if section 56 of the Customs Regulation Act, Cap. 49, applies to such property.

(3) For the purpose of sections 33 and 34 of this Act, the amount that might be realized at the time when a forfeiture order is made shall be calculated in accordance with the following table,
Total of the values at that time of all realizable property held by the defendant...................................................... $ .............
Deduct the total amount payable in pursuance of such obligations (if any) as may have priority at that time.....................$.............
Add the total of the values at that time of all gifts caught by this Act ........................................................................ $..............
Net amount realizable........................................................$..............

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) of this section, an obligation has priority at anytime if it is an obligation of the defendant to,

(a) pay an amount due in respect of a fine, or other order of a court, imposed or made before the forfeiture order; or

(b) pay any sum which, if the defendant had been adjudged bankrupt or was being wound up, would be,

(i) in the case of bankruptcy, the debts to be paid in priority in accordance with section 36 of the Bankruptcy Act, Cap. 244;

(ii) in the case of winding up, the preferential payments to be paid in priority in accordance with section 199 of the Companies Act, Cap. 250.

(5) A gift is caught by this Act if,

(a) it was made by the defendant at any time since the beginning of the period of six years ending when the relevant proceedings were instituted against him; or

(b) it was made by the defendant at any time and was a gift of property,

(i) received by the defendant in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another; or
(ii) which in whole or in part directly or indirectly represented in the defendant’s hands, property received by him in that connection,

Provided that the period of six years mentioned in this subsection shall not include any period prior to the commencement of this Act.

(6) For the purposes of this Act,

(a) the circumstances in which the defendant is to be treated as making a gift include those where he transfers property to another person directly or indirectly for a consideration the value of which is significantly less than the value of the consideration provided by the defendant; and

(b) in those circumstances, the preceding provisions of this section shall apply as if the defendant had made a gift of such share in the property as bears to the whole property the same proportion as the difference between the values referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection bears to the value of the consideration provided by the defendant.

37.–(1) This section applies where the defendant has appeared before the court to be sentenced in respect of one or more drug trafficking offences but the court has not proceeded under section 30 of this Act.

(2) If the prosecutor has evidence,

(a) which was not available to him when the defendant appeared to be sentenced (and accordingly was not considered by the court); but

(b) which the prosecutor believes would have led the court to determine that the defendant had benefited from drug trafficking if-

(i) the prosecutor has asked the court to proceed under section 30 of this Act; and
(ii) the evidence had been considered by the court, he may apply to the court for it to consider the evidence.

(3) The court shall proceed under section 30 of this Act, if having considered the evidence, it is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so.

(4) In considering whether it is appropriate to proceed under section 30 of this Act, the court shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case.

(5) Where, having decided to proceed under section 30 of this Act, the court proposes to make a forfeiture order against the defendant, it shall order the payment of such amount as it thinks just in all the circumstances of the case.

(6) In considering the circumstances of any case the court shall have regard, in particular, to the amount of any fine imposed on the defendant in respect of the offence or offences in question.

(7) Where the court is proceeding under section 30 of this Act, by virtue of this section, subsection (1) of this section shall have effect as if the words “before passing sentence” were omitted.

(8) The court may take into account any payment or other reward received by the defendant on or after the date of conviction, but only if the prosecutor shows that it was received by the defendant in connection with drug trafficking carried on by the defendant or another on or before that date.

(9) In considering any evidence under this section which related to any payment or reward to which subsection (8) of this section applies, the court shall not make the assumptions which would otherwise be required by section 33 of this Act.

(10) No application shall be entertained by the court under this section if it is made after the end of the period of six years beginning with the date of conviction.
(11) In this section “the date of conviction” means,

(a) the date on which the defendant was convicted; or

(b) where he appeared to be sentenced in respect of more than one conviction, and those convictions were not all on the same date, the date of the latest of those convictions.

court shall be entitled to appear before the court and make representations.

39.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, where a person is charged with a drug trafficking offence, a judge of the Supreme Court, on being satisfied by affidavit evidence or otherwise that there is a prima facie case against the defendant, may by order (hereinafter referred to as a “restraint order”) prohibit any person from disposing of or otherwise dealing with any realizable property, otherwise than in such manner as may be specified in the order.

(2) A restraint order may apply,

(a) among such of those who held property which has been realized; and

(b) in such proportions,

as the court may direct after giving a reasonable opportunity for such persons to make representations to the court.

(4) The powers shall be exercised with a view to allowing any person other than the defendant or the recipient of any such gift to retain or recover the value of any property held by him.

(5) In exercising those powers, no account shall be taken of any obligations of the defendant or of the recipient of any such gift which conflict with the obligation to satisfy the forfeiture order.

43.-(1) If the court is satisfied as to any matter relevant for determining the amount which might be realized at the time when the forfeiture order is made (whether by acceptance under section 33 of this Act or otherwise), the court may issue a certificate stating the court’s opinion as to the matters concerned.
(2) If, on an application by the defendant in respect of a forfeiture order, the court is satisfied that the realizable property is inadequate for the payment of any amount remaining to be recovered under the order, the court shall issue a certificate to that effect, giving the court’s reasons.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) of this section,

(a) in the case of realizable property held by a person who has been adjudged bankrupt or whose estate has been sequestrated, the court shall take into account the extent to which any property held by him may be distributed among creditors; and

(b) the court may disregard any inadequacy in the realizable property which appears to the court to be attributed wholly or partly to anything done by the defendant for the purpose of preserving any property held by a person to whom the defendant had directly or indirectly made a gift caught by this Act from any risk or realization under this Act.

(4) Where the court issues a certificate under subsection (1) of this section, the court shall substitute for the amount to be recovered under the forfeiture order such lesser amount as the court thinks just in all the circumstances of the case.

(a) so as to inhibit him from exercising those functions for the purpose of distributing any property held by the company to the company’s creditors; or
